

Student FAQs

If I withdraw or suspend my studies, will I get a refund?

If you withdraw from your program early (or suspend) you may be entitled to a refund. Please see link below for the university refunds policy and for how to claim a refund;

It depends on your last date of attendance. As a Home/EU undergrad or Postgrad taught student, you will get a full refund if you withdraw before the end of the first week of teaching. If you withdraw later than this you will be liable for at least 25% of the total fees.

The rules differ somewhat for international and postgrad research students. Please consult this page for more guidance:
