

Graduation

When I graduate, which documents will I receive from the University and how will I receive them?

When you qualify for your award, the University will provide you with an official certificate and an academic transcript. These documents will be available for collection at the appropriate degree ceremony, unless you have indicated that you will not be attending.

Unique solution ID: #1256

Author: Abby Harries Heat

Last update: 2016-06-22 12:24